Authorised Services

Latipay is the issuer of the LatiPay Payment Gateway 'Payment Gateway'. The Payment Gateway is designed to offer a real-time payment service for Australian businesses transacting with Chinese customers. The Payment Gateway enables you to connect your business website to our payment gateway to help you grow your business sales in China.

As an AFSL holder, we are authorised to provide the following financial services to retail and wholesale clients:

- (a) provide general financial product advice for the following classes of financial products:
 - (i) non-cash payment products
- (b) deal in a financial product by:

- (i) issuing, applying for, acquiring, varying or disposing of a financial product in respect of the following classes of products:
 - (A) non-cash payment products;
- (ii) applying for, acquiring, varying or disposing of a financial product on behalf of another person in respect of the following classes of products:
 - (A) non-cash payment products;

to retail and wholesale clients.

Other disclosure documents

Before you can transact using the LatiPay Payment Gateway, you will receive a product disclosure statement (PDS), issued by Latipay, containing information about the Payment Gateway to help you make an informed investment decision.

How do I access the Authorised Services?

You can access the Authorised Services by going to https://www.latipay.net/ and following the prompts and steps required to transact on the Payment Gateway. Please read the PDS carefully.

Remuneration and benefits payable to us and our associates

Latipay and its associates will receive fees and reimbursement of expenses in relation to its role as the operator of the Payment Gateway, which are detailed in the Merchant Terms and Conditions available at https://merchant.latipay.net/Merchant%20Terms%20and%20Conditions.pdf All fees in the PDS and this FSG are expressed as inclusive of GST.

We do not receive any specific payments in relation to any general advice we provide.

The Latipay board and other representatives of Latipay do not receive specific any payments in respect of, or that are attributable to, the Authorised Services. They receive salaries, bonuses and other benefits from Latipay. Bonus payments and other benefits are discretionary, and based on achievement of pre-determined objectives.

We do not pay commissions or provide other benefits to third parties for referring investors to us.

Financial advisers and intermediaries may also receive fees from you should you consult one, and typically, this will be disclosed in their FSG and SOA that they must give you. We will pay no commission to financial advisers.

How is my personal information dealt with?

We are committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. Our privacy policy states how we manage personal information. You can obtain a copy through our website https://www.latipay.net/ or by calling us.

We aim to ensure that the personal information we retain about you is complete, accurate and up-to-date. If you have any concerns about the completeness or accuracy of the information we have about you or you would like to access or amend your information, simply send an email to info@latipay.net

Complaints

If you have a complaint about the Authorised Services, you should first contact us and discuss the complaint directly.

If you do not feel comfortable discussing the complaint with us or your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within 2 business days you should contact Latipay by writing to:

Disputes Resolution Officer C/- PHC LEGAL L1, 160 Clarence St. Sydney, NSW, 2000

When your complaint is received by Latipay it will be entered into their complaints register. All details of the complaint will be sent to their Disputes Resolution Officer who will investigate the circumstances of the complaint. If their Disputes Resolution Officer is unable to reach a satisfactory resolution of the complaint within forty five (45) business days of receipt, you should contact Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). The details are:
